Indeterminate Offenders/Parole

INTRODUCTION

Offenders with offense dates before July 1, 1984 and crimes punishable by imprisonment are sentenced to indeterminate terms. Parole decisions are made by the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board.

Offenders with offense dates on or after July 1, 1984 were given determinate sentences. These sentences, referred to as Sentencing Reform Act (SRA) sentences, are based on a theory of proportionality, equality and justice where similar times are imposed for similar crimes. There is no oversight body making decisions about the releasability of offenders with determinate sentences.

Certain sex offenders, who commit their crimes on or after September 1, 2001, are given Determinate-Plus (CCB) sentences. A minimum term of prison confinement is set by the court at the time of sentencing. The maximum term is that statutory maximum for the specific offense. Decisions related to the releaseability to community custody of CCB offenders who have served the minimum term, are also made by the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board.

This report contains data related to offenders who are currently serving PRE-SRA indeterminate sentences. A companion report related to determinate-plus/CCB sentenced offenders is also compiled by the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board.

NOTE: The time left until Earliest Possible Release date is calculated by subtracting end-of-the-month date from the current ERD.

Offenders with ERDs prior to the end of the current month are considered Past Release.

Current Custody categories are based on Prison Custody Classification codes.

NOTE: The ERD is missing for a number of offenders who are past release.
